“BEST PUBLICATION AWARDS”

The “Associazione Giovanna Tosi per la lotta contro i Tumori” BEST PUBLICATION AWARDS 2023 will be assigned to 3 young investigators who published within the past two years (1 January 2021 - 31 December 2022) a research paper in a peer-reviewed journal of high impact factor, respectively in the areas of:

- Virology
- Immunology
- Oncology

Special, but not exclusive, attention will be focussed on those papers that deal with pathogen-associated cancer, translational oncology and tumor immunology. Papers in press related to the period January-May 2023 will also be considered.

Applications can be submitted from 20 May 2023 to 30 September 2023 (closing our 05:00 pm, central European time). Incomplete or late applications will not be considered.

Eligibility

The “Associazione Giovanna Tosi per la lotta contro i Tumori” BEST PUBLICATION AWARDS 2021 is open to PhD students, postdoctoral fellows or medical doctor fellows.

Applicants, of any nationality, must be 35 years old or younger at the time of the application deadline. PhD students must be enrolled in a PhD Programme of an Italian public or private university or research institute.

Applicants who already possess a PhD or MD must be working in an Italian public or private research institution.

The publication submitted for evaluation should have the Applicant listed as First Author or Last Author, should be published in a peer-reviewed scholarly journal with an ISSN and should cover the priority aspects identified by the Scientific Committee of the “Associazione Giovanna Tosi per la lotta contro i Tumori” and listed above.

The successful Applicants will receive the award consisting of a plate and a check for 1.500 euro, which will be given at the award ceremony during the “Giovanna Tosi” Scientific Meeting to be held in the fall of 2024. On that occasion, the Awardees will be invited to present a brief overview of their paper.
